Exciting Hangzhou Kurash

Dear Kurash colleagues

I am pleased to announce the launch of another new competition series in the noble sport of Kurash, promoted by the International Kurash Association for the first time in the history of IKA.

Kurash - World Series Pro (WSP) is a new tournament with prize money of $225000 for seven weight categories, male and female, held on all continents of the world, with a single qualifier system.

Kurash-World Series WSP is a series of kurash competitions where the strongest 2 athletes in each weight from each continent are chosen, and the top 8 in each weight will compete against one another and are all rewarded for their hard work and skills.

The qualified athletes will get a ticket to the finals and are invited to Kurash's home country, Uzbekistan. The winners of these competitions will receive prizes on behalf of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan, and the Honorary President of the International Kurash Association.

Dear colleagues!

Join us if you want our new project to be beneficial for the Kurash community.

Haidar A Farman
President of the International Kurash Association
